

The Norwegian Institute of Public Health: Our role and developing partnerships

Elizabeth Peacocke

Contact Seminar, Prague

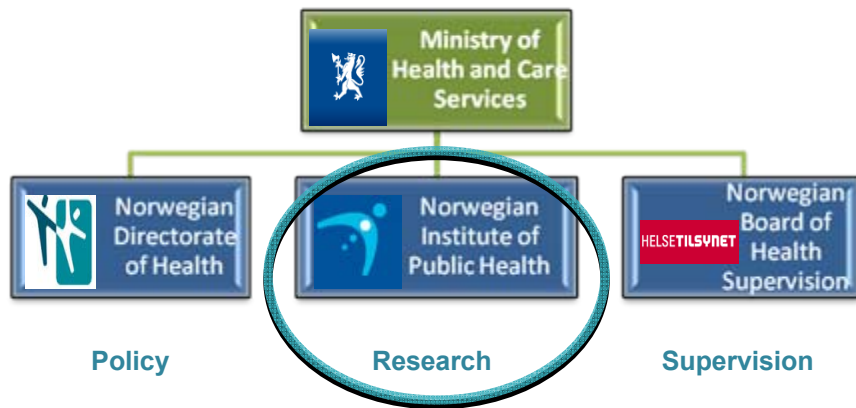

23 April, 2014

Aims of the programme

We work to support these aims:

- To reduce health inequalities in the participating countries
- To improve Public Health in the participating countries
- To improve bilateral relations between the Beneficiary States and the Donor States – mainly through supporting partnerships

Our role as a Donor Programme Partner

Our role as a Donor Programme Partner

- Provide evidence-based advice to support public health programmes under EEA/Norway grants.
- An administrative role working with partner countries under the Framework Agreement
- Assist linking experts from Norway with experts implementing public health programmes.

Linking experts

- Seminars,
- Conferences,
- Workshops.

Different opportunities

- Study visits to and from EEA countries
- Expert exchange/sharing of knowledge
- Secondment?
- A partnership agreement

Working together

"Your corn is ripe today;
mine will be so tomorrow.

'Tis profitable for us both,
that I should labour with you today,
and that you should aid me tomorrow."

—David Hume
philosopher (1711-1776)

Success factors with partnerships

- Research the relevant sector in Norway to narrow your search (including using google translate).
- Approach your embassy, Norwegian Institute of Public Health, or NGO portal (<http://www.ngonorway.org>)
- Make contacts with organisations best suited to you.

Other success factors...

- Be as specific as possible
- Clearly state what you expect
 - What is your project?
 - What do you want assistance with?
 - How much time?
 - Lists of activities
 - Highlight opportunities for them
 - Any costs that they may incur.
